

Dear FCC and Mr. Powell,

Please resist the corporate convergence that is leading us into further conglomeratization of the media...media concentration decreases the free play of ideas in a democracy and stifles dissent. In this time of war on the Afghan people, we need open channels of free communication, not more media conglomerates spewing groupthink.

Thanks,

Brian Oelberg

doctoral student

umass amherst dept. of communication